

Merle Anderson Award: Paul Dana, Jeff Broin, Ron Fagen, and Dave VanderGriend

The most prestigious award presented by the American Coalition for Ethanol, this distinction was established in 1997 to honor our founder and first president, Merle Anderson. The Merle Anderson Award is presented annually to recognize an individual or individuals responsible for distinguished and significant contributions to the advancement of the U.S. ethanol industry.